

KILLS MAN WHO BUMPED INTO HIM IN RUSH FOR HOME

Mondi Says Markino Hit Him
With Longshoreman's Hook
After He Apologized.

Vincenzo Mondì, who was brought to Police Headquarters to-day charged with killing Bartolomeo Markino early last evening in West 34th Street west of the Tenth Avenue corner, says he did not know Markino from Adam and declares he killed him in self-defense. Mondì told his story to reporters while he waited to be fingerprinted and photographed. "I am forty years old," he said, "and live with my wife and five children at No. 106 Sullivan Street, Brooklyn. We were all very happy yesterday morning because I had obtained a new job as longshoreman at a pier near West 34th Street, on the North River.

"I was in such a hurry to get home last night that as I was rushing along through West 34th Street I bumped into this man Mondì.

"I almost upset him and he became angry. I apologized to him—he was twice my size—but nothing I could say appeared to appease his wrath.

"The more he talked and cursed the angrier he became and finally he began belaboring me with his longshoreman's hook. He was making mincemeat out of me when I pulled a pen-knife with a two-and-one-half-inch blade and let him have it. He fell and I ran."

Mondì's face bears marks of the other longshoreman's hooks and at Headquarters the police appeared to give credence to his story. When Markino fell a crowd chased the fleeing Mondì and he was arrested by Patrolman Ahearn and taken to the West 7th Street Police station. His principal worry to-day appeared to be that he had received no answer to a telegram sent to Mrs. Mondì in Brooklyn.

13 CAUGHT IN RAIDS ON JERSEY ROADHOUSES

Proprietors, Bartenders and Waiters
Rounded Up in Eight Passaic
County Resorts.

PATERSON, N. J., Sept. 3.—Proprietors and waiters in eight Passaic County roadhouses rounded up and arrested at midnight by agents of the United States Department of Justice, were held to-day by United States Commissioner Peasey for the Federal Grand Jury on charges of violating the War-time Prohibition Act. Proprietors' bail was fixed at $1,000 and employees $500. The defendants were:

Joseph Berle, proprietor, Wilkie's Driving Park Hotel, Mountain View; Frank Donato, proprietor, and Louis Weber and Nicholas Donato, waiters, Colonial Inn, Singas; Ernest Huebner, proprietor, and Thomas Harth, bartender, Halfway House, West Paterson; Hilda Clifford, proprietor, and Rose Gordon, waiter, Richmond Inn, Richmond; John Jacobs, proprietor, and Annie Jacobs, waiter, Robin Hood Inn, North Road, Clifton; Albert Jesher, proprietor, Great Nitch Hotel, North Road, Clifton; Albert Heuman, proprietor, Park Inn, Passaic; Morris Levy, proprietor, Old Homestead Hotel, Delawanna.

The raid covered a six or seven-mile drive, most of the houses being situated close to the boundary line between Passaic and Essex Counties. Men and women agents of the "D. J." are said to have been collecting evidence for the past four or five weeks. All, it is said, agree that they had little difficulty getting any kind of hard liquor.

VIRGINIA GIRL ACCUSES YOUTH OF TAKING GEMS

Says He Vanished With Jewelry
After Doing Her Slight Favor
That Started Acquaintance.

John Levens, twenty-three years old, of No. 50 Orange street, Brooklyn, was arraigned in the Yorkville Court to-day and held in $1,000 bail on a short affidavit charging grand larceny. The complaining witness, when the case comes to trial, will be Miss Fortuna Morgan, of Virginia, staying at the Commodore Hotel.

She says he performed a slight service for her at the hotel and then forced himself on her acquaintances. Later she says he disappeared with jewelry from her meshbag valued at $125. She also cashed a bad check for him for $15.

Detective John A. Hughes, of the East 31st Street Police Station, who signed the short affidavit, says there are other complaints against Levens, who called himself "Jack Vanderbilt" and is said to have annoyed a number of women. He was arrested at 72d Street and Broadway last night just as he met a young woman. She burst into tears and led to the subway. Levens denies all the charges.

Manning Refr Deceases $150,000
Legal Bill Too High.

Another delay in the final settlement of the $11,000,000 estate left by John B. Manning was occasioned yesterday when Agnes Manning Bannan, a daughter of the millionaire, filed objections to the accounting of the executors on the ground that the bill for $150,000 rendered by Ellis L. Aldrich for legal services and made a part of the accounting was excessive.

ONE-LEGGED SOLDIER KILLS GIRL AND SELF

Being Jilted Because Maimed in War
Believed Cause of Tragedy.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—Friends to-day believed Jeremiah Sedevy's realization that his war wounds had caused his sweetheart's love for him to cease, prompted him last night to shoot her through the heart and then fire a bullet into his own brain. The girl is Mary Barnett. She had worn Jerry's ring since before he went to war. Over there he was gassed and a shell shattered one of his legs. Last night Miss Barnett told him she could not marry him. Instantly there was a revolver shot and then another. They were found dead.
